

Mastercard Competition Privacy Policy

The present privacy policy sets out how personal data collected by FAIRTIQ as part of the Mastercard Campaign (hereinafter “the Competition”) will be used. The data stipulated below will be collected only for the purpose and duration of the Competition, i.e. from 1 October 2019 to 31 December 2019.

Individuals wishing to enter the competition must undertake a paid journey using the FAIRTIQ app or complete the free competition entry form. For those who choose the latter option, Mastercard’s campaign-specific privacy policy will apply. The conditions set out below will apply to participation via the FAIRTIQ app.

The personal data FAIRTIQ will collect and process

When users sign up to the FAIRTIQ app, a variety of personal data is collected during this process (see Application Privacy Policy). Below is a list of the personal data which will be used for the purposes of the Competition:

- mobile telephone number
- payment method
- email address
- first name and surname
- journey details to check whether the paid journey was undertaken during the applicable campaign period.

Purpose and method of data collection

To administer winner selection – random draw, information about the winners and the organisation of the prize trip – the following personal data will be shared with Mastercard and FAIRTIQ’s transport partner which funds the prize:

- mobile telephone number
- email address
- first name and surname

FAIRTIQ will not share or disclose your personal data other than for the purposes set out in the present privacy policy or as indicated at the time of the data collection.
